

ALEX AT WORK....

The boss seems a bit grumpy today....

Maybe he's coming down with a cold....

or he had an argument with another manager this morning...

or someone parked in his parking space

My neurotypical colleague

The boss seems a bit grumpy today....

I wonder what I've done wrong?

Or did I forget to do something?

What if I'm made a mistake?

Or if I said something dumb?

Oh no, maybe he's going to fire me...
