

Child Safe Public Commitment to Child Safety

- I, Sandra Thom-Jones am committed to child safety.
- I want children to be safe, happy and empowered.
- I support and respect all children, as well as our staff and volunteers.
- I am committed to the safety, participation and empowerment of all children.
- I have zero tolerance of child abuse, and all allegations and safety concerns will be treated very seriously.
- I have legal and moral obligations to contact authorities when I am worried about a child's safety, which I follow rigorously.
- I, Sandra Thom-Jones, am committed to preventing child abuse and identifying risks early, and removing and reducing these risks.
- I am committed to the cultural safety of Aboriginal children, the cultural safety of children from culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds, and to providing a safe environment for children with a disability.
- As an autistic person, with a particular focus on activities and programs for autistic children and adults, I am committed to ensuring the provision of neurodiversity-affirming environments and practices, and to supporting and empowering autistic children (and adults) to thrive.
